

Hays County feels impact of Women's Council

To date, the Women's Council of the CTMC Foundation has provided $53,000 in funding to local non-profits that make a difference in the lives of women and children in Hays County. The Council was founded in 2010 as a vehicle to provide non-traditional fundraising through a unique giving circle. Most recently, the organization awarded $16,000 in impact grants to the following six organizations at their third annual Grants Award Ceremony on May 15.

- Bluebonnet Lion's Club, $500
Reach Out and Read Program
- genAUSTIN, $1,800
Programs for Hays County Adolescent Girls
- Hays Caldwell Women's Center, $1,500
Fresh & Nutritious Client Meals
- Samaritan Center, $1,000
Counseling services for uninsured women
- Scheib Center, $3,200
Skills kitchen for mentally disabled clients
- CTMC Women's Center, $8,000
Fetal monitoring telemetry equipment and breast pumps

For more information about joining the Women's Council or their activities, visit www.ctmc.org, or make plans to attend the Women's Council 4th annual meeting on Sept. 5. San Antonio Woman magazine Founding Editor Beverly Purcell Guerra, formerly of Glamour and Vogue, will be the featured speaker. Please RSVP by calling the CTMC Foundation at (512) 753-3687.

